

I love you my Shanghai!

Yes ... Shanghai you a live person to me .. a lively person who makes my life feel good !

Being with you since 10 long & beautiful years makes me feel like our relationship is lifelong & we were meant to be together.

What I love about you is you made me feel warm & welcome since the day I stepped in & accepted me as one of your own .

Your people smiled & greet me wherever I went..

They exclaimed in glee as I spoke the language...

Encouraging me every time I spoke a few words in Mandarin.. saying I spoke like one of your own...

Tried to help whenever I was trying to figure out something new...

Have learnt so much being with you ... The Art.. The culture.. the buzz .. the always on the move feel...

My husband & children love you too ! You are full of energy & charm . We grew here as a family & the best years of our life are shared with you ...

The words are not enough that can make me say how much you have enriched my life .

We are with you & are praying for things to get better soon .. I'm sure they will.

We Love You Shanghai
