

Shanghai our home

*'Dear Shanghai, we been here just a little while
But it you have welcomed us with warm hugs and smile
With lots of doubts and trepidations we have come
Shanghai it already feels like you are our home
We will stand with you through thick and thin
And we will celebrate and rejoice when this battle we win'*

We moved here a short time ago, but we already feel part of this wonderful city and community. The warmth and love we got from the community, Ayi (who is already like family), new friends and colleagues in-spite of the language barrier has filled our hearts with joy.

China has given us a new family member Yuki, we adopted abandoned adorable two-month old pup.

This wonderful vibrant city teaches me something new every day and never ceases to amaze me.

I like the way the community has pulled together to help each other in these tough times.

Once these dark clouds pass, we will build our dreams in this city together.
