

Dear Shanghai,

We love you! We miss you and can't wait to come back! The people, the food, the culture, the excitement, the passion!

We left on what we thought was our CNY holiday and ended up having to stay away and oh how much we miss you!

I came to shanghai 15 years ago, because my husband was living there, I would have never guessed it would have been such an awesome ride. Growing up as a third culture kid my whole life I never thought I could stay in one place for a long time, but it's so easy to stay with you, no matter how long I am there, every corner I turn there is a new building, new restaurants, new museums new people! It's always an adventure!

So much excitement, so much opportunity to do so many things!

I have met so many people over the year and we all have loved you in so many different ways at so many different times! You have brought your energy and your passion to us, making life so much more exciting than anywhere else I have lived.

The kindness of your people is unique their smiles, their availability, they always go out of their way to make us feel at home, and that is just what you are to us!

The ladies at the vegetable markets that are always happy to see you... oh how I miss those smiles! The friendly faces at the park, the kids saying hello to us everywhere and always happy to share and play!

I have lived in so many places in my life, and never have I felt so at home, with such a great community, somehow we are so different but very much the same!

We miss you shanghai! We can't wait to come home!

With love,

Sharon (PowerMeHealthy)
