

	Organization	Contact	Website	What They Accept	Description
 A PLEINES MAINS 法爱公益	À Pleines Mains	Telephone: 182 1775 0124 Email : apleinesmains@yahoo.com WeChat ID: APM-A-Pleines-Mains	http://www.apleinesmains.com/	Clothes (ages 3 and above), unused toiletry kits, books, toys, clean duvets and quilts and shoes (sizes 11.5-10.5)	Founded and run by French expats since 1999, À Pleines Mains dedicates its volunteer forces towards improving the quality of life for underprivileged, disabled and homeless children in the central and western provinces of China. The charity organization accepts donation in the forms of clothes (ages 3 and above), unused toiletry kits, books, toys, clean duvets and quilts and shoes (sizes 11.5-10.5). Drop off your donation at its Qingpu location or find volunteers at one of its community bazaars around town.
	Asian Tigers	Email: sales@asiantigers-china.com	https://www.asiantigers-mobility.com/	Clothes, toys, shoes, books and furniture	As one of Asia's most well-known moving and relocation company, Asian Tiger also works with charities in town (such as À Pleines Mains, Beacon of love, Mifan Mama, Heart to Heart Shanghai and Will Foundation) to collect unused items. Accepted donations include clothes, toys, shoes, books and furniture; which are redistributed to orphanages and underprivileged groups to help those in need.
	Community Center Shanghai	Email: caitlin@communitycenter.cn	https://www.communitycentershanghai.com/charity/	Books	The Community Center Shanghai's Pudong Center is accepting book donations for its Used Book Library, selling these books for 10 RMB each. Although people are also free to bring in books and exchange them for others on the shelf. Proceeds from book sales benefit the Giving Tree Charity.

	Heart to Heart Shanghai	Email: donations@h2hsh.net	https://www.h2hsh.com/	Hand towels & wash cloths, baby toys, liquid soap, blankets for single beds, full-sized body lotion, wet wipes, shampoo, baby wash, coloring books, clothing for aged 3-4 girls, girls toys.	Founded in 2003 by expat Christine Cullen, Heart to Heart Shanghai supports children undergoing corrective heart surgery in Shanghai. The charity collaborates with Shanghai Children's Medical Centre (SCMC) and the Shanghai Yodak Cardiothoracic Hospital and functions as the link between donors and families in need. If you have used clothing, toys, unused toiletries, or even protein-rich packaged food to donate, get in touch with Heart to Heart to arrange a pick-up.
	Mifan Mama	Email: mifanmama@outlook.com	http://www.mifanmama.com/	Clothing (for babies, children or adults), toys and games for all ages, books (Chinese or English), diapers and baby wipes and furniture	This NGO provides basic services (food, healthcare, education) to orphanages across six provinces. You can help them by donating clothing (for babies, children or adults), toys and games for all ages, books (Chinese or English), diapers and baby wipes and furniture.
	Mom-to-Mom Sale	Email: momtomomsaleshanghai@hotmail.com	https://www.mom2momsaleshanghai.com/	Used children's items	Founded in 2008 by two moms, this non-profit group now sells thousands of kuai's worth of used children's items. They have six sales per year, and the next one is coming up in late April and registration opens on April 11. (It's also a great place to shop for kids, although if you're spring cleaning, it might not be the best idea.) Fifteen percent of proceeds are donated to the Heart to Heart, a community outreach organization that provides support for children undergoing heart surgery. They only accept 50 vendors for each sale, and the registration fee is RMB200.

	The [WE] Project	Email: we@greeninitiatives.cn	https://greeninitiatives.cn/we	Unwanted electronic products - household appliances, telecommunications equipment and storage devices	Launched in 2016 by the eco-oriented charity organization Green Initiatives, The [WE] Project aims to reduce environmental and health damage by reclaiming unwanted electronic products. If you have household appliances, telecommunications equipment and storage devices, you can dispose of them responsibly and help reduce damaging emissions caused by landfill incineration. The project partners with Community Center Shanghai and Element Fresh along with other cafes and shops around town.
	The Renewal Center	Email: Swen.develing2014@sh.ycef.com Or Jackson.lee2018@sh.ycef.com	Renewal.org.cn	Seeking warm clothing for adult men and women (new or used, must be in good condition). Also accept men and women's clothing of all kinds, backpacks, bags and suitcases.	The Renewal Center provides residents with a place to stay, changes of clothing, showers, English lessons, job skills training, and basic assistance for those who do not have a home of their own. The center works with local businesses to help them secure jobs. More importantly, the shelter seeks to create avenues out of poverty for their residents.

Sources: Where to Donate and Recycle Your Used Goods in Shanghai. (2018, May 31). Retrieved November 20, 2019, from <http://urbanfamily.thatsmags.com/shanghai/post/873/where-to-donate-and-recycle-your-used-goods-in-shanghai.html>.